Credit Check and Data on Credit information: I confirm that all details stated above are correct and I authorize Cembra Money Bank AG ("Bank") to gather all information about me required to verify this application and to handle the contractual relationship, for example from other companies of the Cembra Group ("Group Companies", a regularly updated list is available at www.cembra.ch/group), banks, external credit analysts, public authorities, the Central Agency for Credit Information (ZEK), the Information Agency for Consumer Credit (IKO) as well as from other bodies in the case of corresponding legal obligations. I acknowledge the right of ZEK and IKO to inform their members about the data received. Any possible data blocks ordered by me will not apply to the Bank. To the extent that my application is sent to the Bank via an intermediary, the Bank shall exchange the necessary information with the intermediary regarding the application and credit check, the conclusion and performance of the contract as well as for the commissioning. By signing this application, the spouse or registered partner ("Partner") confirms that he/she agrees to the collection of information concerning him/her as described above (including ZEK information requests) and that he/she lives in the same household as the applicant. Personal Data and Data Protection: I authorize the Bank to process and analyze my data and to use my data for marketing purposes and create profiles from them. The Bank may offer me products and services, including those of Group Companies. I can object to this data processing at any time. The Bank and the Group Companies may exchange my data for credit risk and fraud prevention purposes and process my data for these purposes. The Bank may outsource services to Group Companies and third parties in Switzerland and abroad ("service providers"), in particular in the areas of handling business processes, IT security and system control, marketing research, the calculation of business-relevant credit and market risks as well as the administration of contractual relations (e.g. application and contract processing, debt enforcement, customer communication). The Bank may arrange for my data to be processed in countries, which do not have a level of data protection equivalent to that in Switzerland. Data will only be transferred after the service provider has committed to maintaining an adequate level of data protection and ensuring banking secrecy. I am aware that my data will be transferred abroad and will be transmitted via e-mail or the Internet, if chosen by me as communication channel. Further information on data protection can be found in the bank's data privacy policy (cembra.ch/en/privacy-policy/). I expressly waive the banking secrecy with regard to all the above-mentioned data processing. The Bank has the right to reject the present application without giving grounds. I have read the application conditions and agree to them.

Approval of a loan is forbidden by law if it would lead to over-indebtedness on the part of the customer (legal stipulation as required by Art. 3, Federal Unfair Competition Act). The borrower must be aware that unforeseen incidents such as loss of employment, accidents, illness or divorce during a private loan term could result in adverse changes to his/her income/expenditure situation.

*Spouses and registered partners with the same residential address as the applicant are considered partners.
